Criteria and weighting	Level	Comments
Knowledge and understanding of the topic/ issues under consideration (25%)	Excellent	It is clear that you have an excellent knowledge and understanding of your subject matter, and that you have identified aspects of the topic to create an effective research question to develop your chosen topic related to research.
Use of relevant sources (10%)	Very Good	Very good use of relevant resources. There is clear research applied to the content, and you do have an effective grounding here now to develop and build your research for the topic under question. Good use of citation and application of a reference list.
Criticality (25%)	Very Good	Very good analysis of your content and you do link theory and practice which is appropriate. Whilst you do have a very good grasp of your context, try to build a critical discussion in your summative to effectively look at the pros and cons aspect of the subject.
Structure and Presentation (10%)	Outstanding	Outstanding presentation regarding the power point. It is clear that the content has been well thought through and the selection of imagery and infographics demonstrated on the slide have been completed and considered to an excellent standard.
Presentation and Communication Skills (30%)	Excellent	Excellent presentation skills. The content is well paced and it is clear that you have rehearsed the presentation and again planned and considered your delivery. Your presentation speaking voice is clear, with a professional and considered tone. The presentation was also well timed.

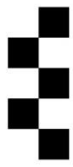

Overall

Positives:

- Outstanding structure and presentation
- Excellent presentation and communication skills
- Overall, a very good outcome

Points for development:

- Work on criticality regarding discussion in your content
- Develop your research content looking forward to the last summative in this module and then considering moving forward to your dissertation

- Apply a holistic approach to all learning outcomes and your grade will further develop then, [reflect on summative feed here holistically to support that development].
